Residential Burn Pile Standards

Maximum Pile Size is 4 feet by 4 feet in Diameter

Burn Hours are 6:00 am until 1 hour before sunset

(Fire must be completely out by 1 hour before sunset, EXCEPT during fire season)

Do not burn unless weather conditions (particularly winds) are such that burning can be considered safe.

BURN ONLY ON PERMISSIVE BURN DAYS FOR YOUR BURN ZONE

Permit holders must call the Burn Day Hotline prior to ignition. Burn Day Hotline phone number and zone will be provided on your valid burn permit.

APPROVED COMBUSTIBLES: This permit allows burning of Dried Vegetative Matter burned only on the property where it was grown. This includes leaves, brush, vines, prunings, weeds, clippings, grass, trees, and other natural vegetation. Vegetation must be reasonably free of dirt and moisture prior to ignition. NO LARGE STUMPS!

DO NOT burn wet or green vegetation. Burn sufficiently dried vegetation hot and clean. Smoldering fires should be extinguished.

NON-APPROVED COMBUSTIBLES: It is Illegal to Burn the Following: All Plastics, Rubber, Wood that has been Chemically Treated to Retard Rot or Decay, Wood that has been Treated or Modified with Glues, Laminates, Stains, Finishes, Paints, Glosses, Insecticides, Fungicides or Fumigates, Tires, Glass, Petroleum Products, Coated Wire, PVC Pipe, Fiberglass, Appliances, Furniture, Crates, Asbestos Shingles, Poison Oak, Asphalt Shingles, Cloth, Carpet, Upholstery, Tarpaper, Vehicle Parts, Business/Commercial Waste, Linoleum, Diapers, Motor Oil, Pressure-Treated Wood, Creosote-Treated Wood, Demolition/Construction Debris, Dimensional Lumber, Household Garbage, Styrofoam, Plywood, Pressboard, Oil Filters, Animal Waste, Painted Wood, Batteries, Pesticides, Cardboard*, Paper Products* or any other material restricted by other federal, state, or local code, regulation or law.

*If a residence has a pre-approved Rural Area Exemption from the NCUAQMD, non-glossy paper and cardboard products may be burned.

Economic Hardship: fees for residential burning may be waived by the Air Pollution Control Officer upon a showing of economic hardship.
